

Back Into Darkness

Blacklite District

Strophe 1

You give and you give, just to get there and fall
You take and you take and for nothing at all
You run and you run straight into the wall

You don't wanna go there, but your mind goes astray
You can handle the fear, but you can't take the pain
You can jump off the edge 'cause the ending's the same

There's a lot in your head, you've got nothing but time
We could figure it out 'cause you'll always be mine
You can turn this around, but you can't stand the drive

Chorus 1

You fall back into darkness again
Realize you can only wish it's pretend
No lie, you're in it deep this time, my friend
My friend, oh
You fall back into darkness again
Realize you can only wish it's pretend
No lie, you're in it deep this time, my friend
Back into darkness again

Strophe 2

You try and you try, but it never gets done
You won't hesitate when the feelings are numb
There's a lot on your plate, but the damage is done

You can try to react, but you know it's the same
I would take what we had and I'd throw it away
I'm missing your touch and I'm going insane

Chorus 2

You fall back into darkness again
Realize you can only wish it's pretend
No lie, you're in it deep this time, my friend
My friend, oh
You fall back into darkness again
Realize you can only wish it's pretend
No lie, you're in it deep this time, my friend
Back into darkness again

Bridge

Trapped in a relapse, trapped in a relapse
Trapped in a relapse again and again
Trapped in a relapse, trapped in a relapse
Trapped in a relapse, back into darkness, my friend

Trapped in a relapse, trapped in a relapse
Trapped in a relapse again and again
Trapped in a relapse, trapped in a relapse
Trapped in a relapse, back into darkness, my friend

You can let it all go, but you can't say the words
You wanna back down, but you know it still hurts
I'm calling you out, but it's all just a blur

Chorus 3

You fall back into darkness again
Realize you can only wish it's pretend
No lie, you're in it deep this time, my friend
My friend, oh
You fall back into darkness again
Realize you can only wish it's pretend
No lie, you're in it deep this time, my friend
Back into darkness again
